

Closed For Business

Mansun

Roll on up and queue in line
All you need is here
Absurdity in what you see
Can't match the state you're in

All things are flawed to me
Stick with the things that you know
Buy what you want from me
Hope was the one thing I sold

Say what you can't say, I'll never know
Don't want to know, what you really sold
Say what you can't say, I'll never know
Don't want to know, what you really sold
It's been a bad day
Closed for business, I'm going home

Tasteless gas that comes in cans
Why should I be stoned
For selling things to heal your sins
And make your sorrows go

Say what you can't say, I'll never know
Don't want to know, what you really sold
Say what you can't say, I'll never know
Don't want to know, what you really sold

Say what you can't say, what you really sold [Repeat: x4]

It's been a bad day
Closed for business, I'm going home
