

Stripper Vicar

Mansun

Dear Mavis I'm compelled to write this letter In the hope that you may soon be getting better I've a feeling you should go and see a doctor If you haven't then you know you really oughta I was worried so I went to see the vicar But before I could confess he first confessed to be a stripper

Dear Mavis it was very strange to see him So I thought I'd write and ask your opinion Should I grass on him, report him to the cardinal Or wether I should egg him on to turn professional If I dob on him they'll call him plastic scouserBut the only thing the stripper wears is plastic trousers

Mavis' opinion is all we really seek Mavis' opinion is all we should we... Lie while he's still alive Should we lie while he's still alive' Cos when the vicar strips he gets away with it

Dear Mavis, thought I'd follow up my Cast your stone now he who never sins Clearly all your roles are now defined(You've got yours but I have broken mine)Simply just reflections ofMy honest professional belief that I am God(I am God) Stop me before I go over the edgeStop me before I go over the edgeStop me before I...

Happy children specially in need(Send them to the dentist they will bleed)Before you get to know exhesitate(Could be gay or could be straight)Your mental state which separatesThe action from intention, wash your hands(Wash your hands) Stop me before I go over the edgeStop me before I go over the edgeStop me before I... Only for tinsel Only for tinsel Stop me before I go over the edgeStop me before I go over the edgeStop me before I... letter Drop a line about the fate of our poor vicar Very tragically his time on earth is ended Found him gagged and boun

d in stockings and suspenders Dear Mavis if you tell us what your thoughts are
And I hope that they're not biased 'cos you are the vicar's daughter Mavis' opinion is all we really seek Mavis' opinion is all we should we... Lie now that he has died Should we lie now that he has died
'Cos
when the vicar strips he gets away with it And we know him as our vicar and by night a part-time stripper And the vicar got suspended in his stockings and suspenders And he's making wine from water while he dresses like his daughter And we know that he's a rip off 'cos we've seen him with his kit off Should we lie now that he has died Should we lie now that he has died' Cos when the vicar strips he gets away with it t