

A New Breeze

Marble Sounds

I can feel a new breeze
That will ease our minds
It's a different heartbeat
And the timing feels right

Gonna feed this hunger
Gonna quench my thirst
Though I know indulgence
It could make it much worse

We have talked it over
Cause the prize ain't small
But it will be worth it after all

We can cross the ocean
Take it day by day
We can stop our watches
And we'll never be late

We can have a daughter
We can have a son
We don't know tomorrow
But we'll do what seems right after all
