Nijinsky Heart

Marc Almond

I need to express my heart And face my destiny There's an agile dancer Waiting inside of me At the supermarket I'd spin down the isle To pirouette and grand jeté with Style Won't you help me Give me a chance To be a god of dance And let this firebird go And set free My Nijinsky heart I'd bloom like an exotic flower As I reach out for the light Illuminated wings and stars Bursting out from inside The orchestration swells The strings ascend and so do I I'm a force of nature From a spark of fire But each time I try to dance I stumble and fall Help me to co-ordinate I can't dance at all Please show me My Nijinsky heart...
