

Our Love, My Love

Marc Almond

Our love my love
Won't be strung across the sky
In wildly waving banners
Ninety seven rainbows high
We don't need a thousand vows
We don't need a tinsel star
I am me you are you
All we need is who we are
I am me you're you
All we need is who we are

When we're standing face to face
We are standing soul to soul
In our very own private place
That the world can't control

Our love my love
Is as simple as the spring
Quiet as the sound of bells
Just before they start to ring
We don't need a big parade
Keep our snowflakes in a jar
I am me you are you
All we need is who we are
I am me you're you
Our love my love is who we are

Who we are
Who we are
Who we are
