

I Swear

Marc Anthony

I have never seen an angel standing oh so close to me
I have never touched someone and felt so electricity
I am taken over by the endless possibilities
And I'm waiting for the day you say that you belong to me
I swear
No one will ever love you better
I swear
We could be so good together

R: I never wanted anyone the way I want you (baby)
I never met someone who gives me everything you do
I swear
If I'm with you there's no other
I swear
There will never be another

Cause of you there are more reasons to be thankful everyday
Cause of you I'm reminded of the chances I should take
It's the comfort of your warm embrace that shelters all the rain
And there's nothing I wouldn't give for you to feel the same
I swear
No one will ever love you better
I swear
We could be so good together

R:

Somewhere, Somehow you appeared
And everything's so different now
When you're around
The promise of all we could be
Is what keeps me going now
I'm never down

R:
