

Welcome to Your Life

Marc Anthony

This is what you said to me: Be careful what you wish for. This is your life Welcome to your life You prayed for this It's fine with me And now I'm out, don't bother me It's your life Welcome to your life.

You say, lately: The grass is greener on the other side. Oh, you're there, baby Now, tell me how it feels, what did you find? Cause what you have, you don't want until it's gone Then you can't get it back and you can't handle that After all, this is where you chose to be and that's just fine with me just don't run back to me.

This is what you said to me: Be careful what you wish for. This is your life Welcome to your life You prayed for this It's fine with me And now I'm out, don't bother me It's your life, welcome to your life.

You must be crazy thinking I would give you another chance. Where were you when I couldn't eat - or much less sleep you off? Cause what you had you'll never find You gave it up and now it's mine to give to someone else Yeah, I found someone else So save your calls, keep your lies, You're wasting time Girl, you don't mean to me enough to get to me.

This is what you said to me: Be careful what you wish for. This is your life welcome to your life You prayed for this It's fine with me And now I'm out, don't bother me It's your life Welcome to your life.

All those times I ran alone Left to reason on my own and you didn't even stop to look my way. But there I was, I stayed, I fought to find my way. So tell me, is it what you thought it would be?

This is what you said to me: Be careful what you wish for. This is your life welcome to your life You prayed for this It's fine with me And now I'm out, don't bother me It's your life, (oh this is your life) Welcome to your life, welcome to your life, baby
