

Teenage Dream

Marc Bolan

whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)
Surprise surprise the boys are ho--me
My guardian angels rung down my telepho-ne
The heats on mister can't you hear them scream
whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)

The curfew comes at the crack of night
The sad old wino aches to disipate the fright A jet-jump jiver speeds past in his machine - but
whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)

A broken God from a rusty wor--ld Sweetly mouth-touched an onyx gi--rl His prison bars were very hard to clean but
whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)

The wizard of oz and the bronzen thief Ruled my girl with teutonic teeth
But all was lost when her mouth turned green
whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)

The silver surfer and the ragged kid
Are all sad and rusty boy they don't have a gig-- Believe me pope paul my toes are clean
whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)

Now - black is black and white is white
Some go to heaven and some get it light My guard was a prude but his wicked screams
whatever happened to the teenage dream? (yeah)
