

I Love You More Than You'll Ever Know

Marc Broussard

If I ever leave you baby
You can say I told you so
And if I ever hurt you, baby
You know I hurt myself as well

Is that any way for a man to carry on?
Do you think I want my loved one gone?
Said, "I love you, more than you'll ever know
More than you'll ever know"

When I wasn't makin' much money
You know where my paycheck went
I brought it home to you baby, oh oh
And I never spent a red cent, yeah

Is that any way for a man to carry on?
Do you think I want my loved one gone?
Said, "I love you, more than you'll ever know
More than you'll ever know"

Now listen to this

I'm not tryin' to be, no no no no
Just any kind of man, no I ain't
I'm tryin' to be somebody
You can love, trust and understand

I know, I know, I know, I know that I can be
The part of you that no one else could see
And I got to hear you say, I got to hear you say
It's all right

I'm only flesh and blood
But I can be anything that you demand
I could be King of everything
Or just a tiny grain of sand

Who will tell me is that any way for a man to carry on?
Do you think I want my loved one gone?
I love you, more than you'll ever know
Said, "I love you, I love you, I love you, hey hey"
