Mama's In The Moon

Marc Cohn

Dogs are barking and she's so high, she's never coming down. Don't wanna pull the shade tonight, I think I'm wanna drown. I'm sending out a message, or could I die too soon? 'Cause I don't know where I'm going, Since Mama's in the moon.

Now, I can hear her laughing, and I can hear her cry. I can see her dancing somewhere in the sky. I'm rising like the ocean, and I'm crazy as a loon. And I don't know what I'm doing, Since Mama's in the moon.

The dogs are barking and she's so high, And she's never coming down.
