

I came to town, be a mister nice guy
The dream of every mother in law
I went to work every day 9 to 5
Then suddenly it was you that I saw

Your smile; baby your style, crazy tonight
Maybe the stars forget to shine

'Cause when we do what we do nobody does it like you
We let emotions take control get ecstatic
And this is not like the things your mama told you to do
Here's what we do, we're getting fanatic

We close the door, lock it up
And let the curtains fall down
Put out the phone then we go for a hattrick
And this is not quite the things you tell your neighbours about
Here's what we do, we're getting fanatic

YEAH YEAH YEAH OH OH OH

So I fell down on a society
A Slagger and a Beggar for love
I walk the streets every day 9 to 5
Then suddenly it was you that I saw
Your smile, baby your style, Crazy I'll get
Maybe the dollar for a dime

Cause when we do what we do nobody does it like you
We let emotions take control get ecstatic
And this is not like the things your mama told you to do
Here's what we do, we're getting fanatic

CIA and FBI don't you now they wonder why
Is there something going on
Stronger than the powers strong
Neighbours calling the police
"Officer come help me please!"

This is so mysterious
Boy and girl is curious
Living only for their lost
Tell them please it's dangerous

Cause when we do what we do nobody does it like you
We let emotions take control get ecstatic
And this is not like the things your mama told you to do
Here's what we do, we're getting fanatic

We close the door, lock it up
And let the curtains fall down
Put out the phone then we go for a hattrick
And this is not quite the things you tell your neighbours about
Here's what we do, we're getting fanatic

What the hell is heat between the sheets mean?
