

Heat Between The Sheets

Marc Terenzi

I got a girl
Oh boy, you can't imagine
She's spreading love and giving satisfaction
She blows my mind
Her touch is just like fire, oh yeah
She makes the rules, one kiss can take you higher

Come on, come on, come on
No matter how they try to steal her from me
This fire will burn eternally
We're adding gasoline each time that we meet
There's gonna be heat between the sheets
No matter how they try to tear us apart
I know they won't kill
The flame in our hearts
And baby, every time we manage to meet
There's gonna be heat between the sheets

Some people say that flames are no solution
So is this love or just a revolution
You've gotta fight the fire with fire
So let it burn and live for your desire

I promise you heat between the sheets
Come on, come on, come on
No matter how they try to steal her from me
This fire will burn eternally
We're adding gasoline each time that we meet
There's gonna be heat between the sheets
No matter how they try to tear us apart
I know they won't kill
The flame in our hearts
And baby, every time we manage to meet
There's gonna be heat between the sheets

Oh baby, baby, when the morning comes
We step outside to watch the rising sun
Then you kiss my lips and I take your hand
Let's go back to bed where we start it again

(Are you with me?)
(Can you feel me?)

Come on, come on, come on
No matter how they try to steal her from me
This fire will burn eternally
We're adding gasoline each time that we meet
There's gonna be heat between the sheets
No matter how they try to tear us apart
I know they won't kill
The flame in our hearts
And baby, every time we manage to meet
There's gonna be heat between the sheets
