

You Complete My Soul

Marc Terenzi

I'm feeling tired of times
When you're not with me
I'm missing a part of myself
That i can not be
I'm longing the times that we met
Like flowers the sun
The desert is needing the rain
And I'm on the run

But you can change everything
And make all undone

'Cause only you can complete my soul
Only you
You can make me whole
Will you take my hand
Without you
I'm just half a man
You complete my soul

I've longed for the taste of your lips
Like sand tastes the sun
I'm missing a part of myself
When I'm on the run
Ohh

Only you can change everything
And make all undone

'Cause only you can complete my soul
Only you
You can make me whole
Will you take my hand
Without you
I'm just half a man
You complete my soul

I'm needing you
Like sand needs the shore
I promise this time
Will be better then before

'Cause only you can complete my soul
Only you
You can make me whole (only you)
Will you take my hand (take my hand)
Without you
I'm just half a man (I'm just half a man)
You complete my soul
You complete my soul
You complete my soul
