

I Got the Fear

Marco Mengoni

Like Edward Woodward
In the wicker man Didn't plan on being Nobody's sacrificial lamb
Say it loud and clear
I got the fear

That way you're movin
I just can't explain Can't keep ignoring These alarm bells in my brain
No more I hear temptation's baging on my door

I got the fear now
don't see I'm spinning out
'cos you're in control
And I know you know

I got the fear now Sunddely so clear how I'm wrapped around Your finger and you know that I'll come running when you call anytime you call

Feel like a yoyo hanging on a string Keep thinking I'm escaping but you pull me back again just like you do I should be running but it feels so good

I got the fear now
don't see I'm Spinning out
'cos you're in control
And I know you know

Sunddely so clear how I'm wrapped around Your finger and you know that I'll come running when you call anytime you call

don't stop doing that thing you do I've given up running gonna let you use me

don't stop doing that thing you do

don't stop doing that thing you do

don't stop doing that thing you do
I've given up running gonna let you use me

I got the fear now

'cos you're in control

I'm wrapped around Your finger and you know that I'll come running

I got the fear now

and you know that I'll come running when you call anytime you callrunning

when you call anytime you call
