

Heartbeat

Marcus & Martinus

You said, "Why am I holding on, baby?" Ooh.
I would never back down.
Are you walkin' out of my life?
Saying you really don't love me. Ooh.
Baby, you don't mean that.
You remember all that we had

I took it for granted that you loved me the same
But I gotta keep on talking
Listen to my heartbeat, beat, beat
Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone
So I put you in a song
Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat

I know I haven't been the best lately. Oh.
And I really know now I should give you all of my time. Yeah.
You really do deserve better. Oh.
Gotta get you somehow.
Can we start over again now?

I took it for granted that you loved me the same
But I gotta keep on talking
Listen to my heartbeat, beat, beat
Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone
So I put you in a song
Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat

Why am I holding on, baby?
I would never back down.
Are you walkin' out of my life?

So listen to my heartbeat, beat, beat
Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"
Oh, saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone
So I put you in a song
Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat

Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone
So I put you in a song
Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat
