

Without You

Marcus & Martinus

Is it over?
I just gotta know
'Cause I'm reaching
But where did you go?
Tears are falling
While I'm calling
Can't make it alone, no
It's so silent
Nobody's home

Tell me is it gonna be another lonely heart tonight?
Without you
Without you
'Cause I don't wanna wake up in the morning knowing you're not mine
Without you
Without you
Gotta get you back to me
Get away my misery
(woah-oh-oh woah-oh-oh-oh)
Tell me is it gonna be another lonely heart tonight?
Without you
Without you

I'm breathing
But I'm barely alive
I'm dreaming
Of you by my side
Now I'm broken
Words are spoken
Running through my mind
I need you
But you're so hard to find

Tell me is it gonna be another lonely heart tonight?
Without you, without you
'Cause I don't wanna wake up in the morning
Knowing you're not mine
Without you
Without you
Gotta get you back to me
Get away my misery
(woah-oh-oh woah-oh-oh-oh)
Tell me is it gonna be another lonely heart tonight?
Without you
Without you

Try to talk, but I choke
But I want
You to know
That I never felt this way
Or by nobody else and I
When I call you on my phone
Cause now when I'm all alone
I realize you don't know what you got until it's gone
'Cause I don't wanna wake up
(nooo-no-no)

Tell me is it gonna be another lonely heart tonight?
Without you
Without you
'Cause I don't wanna wake up in the morning
Knowing you're not mine
Without you
Without you
Gotta get you back to me
Get away my misery
(woah-oh-oh woah-oh-oh-oh)
Tell me is it gonna be another lonely heart tonight?
Without you
Without you
