

Down the Drain

Marcy Playground

I'm staring down the drain,
(of the sink in the bathroom)
Oh oh...
In a cloud of pure cocaine
(and I think what have I done)
Oh oh...
If you ignore me I swear I'll go insane

So kiss me like before... the madness started
And hug me like before... our love departed
Oh Angel do you wish we never started

(I wish...)
You could be my girl again
That's all I ever wanted
Oh you could be my girl
I only ever wanted you
Yeah you could be my girl again
That's all I ever wanted,
And to God I swear
O' God I swear it's true

I'm staring down the drain
