

All That I Am

Margaret Becker

No one ever gave me
A love so fine
That gently heals my heart
One piece at a time
That takes each jagged edge
And every crooked line
And smoothes them to life

Well no one ever gave me
A love so sweet
That tips my heart to drink
When I'm fainting from the heat
That wraps my aching wounds
In strips of mercy
So tenderly

Is there anyone who can compare?

CHORUS

All that I am
And all that I will be
I place in Your hands
I rest at Your feet
All of my life
Indebted I will be
To You

No one ever moved me
Quite the way You do
And just like Jericho
I'm vulnerable to You
And though You know the way
To break me in two
You never do

Is there anyone who can compare?
repeat Chorus

Silver and gold
Treasure they may be
Some would die for them
But the don't mean that much to me
Cause only You can give a love
That satisfies the soul
Sees the darkness of my heart
And still won't let me go
repeat Chorus
