

For The Love Of You

Margaret Becker

Been searching deep inside me
To find some hidden clues
About my motivation
For loving You
I know there is the obvious
Your blessings and Your peace
But what if all Your benefits
Were to suddenly decrease?
Way beyond the things I know I will receive
I want my motivations for loving You to be (just)

Chorus:
For the love, for the love of You
Not for what it brings
For the love, for the love of You
Let me do all things
Not for what You'll do
But just for the love of You

Now I love all the joy You bring
And the thought of eternal life
I love the way you gentle me
Everytime I cry
I know there is no other way
No better way to live
But which one do I love the most
You or what You give?
Way beyond the things I know You've promised me
I want my motivation for loving You to be (just)

If I can live my life like that Reasons for love I will never lack
Sure there will be blessings
Sure there will be pain
But loving for You, I've got nothing to lose
And everything to gain (when it's)
