

Giants Will Fall

Margaret Becker

There's a quite in the Kingdom - Feeling for a fight
There's a stillness in your valley
That doesn't quite seem right
Keep in mind that little boy
With a sling and what he said
When you see evil circumstance
Raise its ugly head

Giants will fall
When confronted by the power of prayer
Giants will fall
When they realize why you're really there
Giants will fall
When they see that you don't easily scare
Giants will fall
When confronted by the power of prayer

Goliath leering in the breach
He bragged they had no power
And as they let him make his speech
He grew bigger by the hour

'Cause fear makes mountains taller
Faith makes mountains small
And when you're standing in God's strength
Giants have to fall
