

Horses

Margaret Becker

Last night I dreamed of horses
Coming for my soul
Taking me to places
I wasn't ready yet to go, no no

Last night, I dreamed of silence
The silence that I keep
All the things, I could've said
Well, they stole away my sleep

I need to remember
The horses will come
(I need to remember)
I need to remember
How quickly they run
(I need to remember)

I want no regrets
When the horses come for me
I cannot forget
That the horses come for me

Last night I dreamed You with me
You put Your finger to my lips
And You told me to be brave now
And I felt like I'd been kissed

I need to remember
You're always with me
(I need to remember)
And I need to remember
You're the reason I breathe
(I need to remember)

I want no regrets
When the horses come for me
I cannot forget
That the horses come for me

Last night, I woke up crying
But I knew I'd be alright

I want no regrets
When the horses come for me
Oh, I cannot forget
That the horses come for me

No regrets
I cannot forget

Last night, I dreamed of horses
