

Moment Of Choice

Margaret Becker

It's alright to cry tonight
Sometimes tears have to fall
Sometimes a trembling heart
Is the strongest heart of all

It's alright to feel tonight
Let the Light wash your soul
Face the fears one by one
Touch them and let them go

This is the beginning
This moment is new
It's time for a change now
A change for you
Chase down your freedom
Lift up your voice
This is your moment
Your moment of choice

It's alright to rest tonight
Let no one steal your peace
Life has it's twists and turns

But tonight is your release
This is the beginning
This moment is new
It's time for a change now
A change for you
Chase down your freedom
Lift up your voice
This is your moment
Your moment of choice

If you believe than go with me to the Garden of life

This is the beginning
This moment is new
It's time for a change now
Change for you
Chase down your freedom
Lift up your voice
This is your moment
Your moment
This is your moment
Your moment of choice

Yes, I feel a change
If you believe than go with me to the
Garden of life
Come go with me
Yea, I feel a change coming on
If you believe then go with me to the
Garden of life
Come go with me
Yea, I feel a change
If you believe then go with me to the

Garden of life
Come go with me
