

Only Your Love

Margaret Becker

Even as I stand here before You
Thinking of the graces I have received
I am so amazed by Your wonders
Every seed, every star and this life that I breathe
How can I express the joy that's in my soul
Jesus, I want You to know

Only Your love
Does this to me
Lifts me above what I thought I could be
I fly like a banner
Anchored yet free
And only Your love does this to me

And even as I stand here before You
Still there is a distance I long to close Lord, I want to run right straight toward You want to cling like a child to the folds of Your robe
You're my champion, my comfort and my strength
Jesus, I'll tell You again

Only Your love
Does this to me
Lifts me above what I thought I could be
I fly like a banner
Anchored yet free
And only Your love does this to me

I freely choose to do Your will
'Cause every moment of my life
Is a moment I want You to fill

Only Your love
Does this to me
Lifts me above what I thought I could be
I fly like a banner
Anchored yet free
Only Your love does this to me
