

All I Need

Margaret

Standing at the crowded crossroad
I'm trying to read the signs
It's gonna take some time
Before I pull what's left and get this right
yesterday is just a memory
Today a faded smile
Tomorrow will come with the beat of a drum

I'm playing my part
And I can feel there's a ray of hope
In my two way kaleidoscope
Oh yeah, and I know I will find a home
Somewhere in the great unknown
And you know...

Life is but a wheel of fortune
But nothing ever comes for free
And I'm taking my name from the lattery
Gotta believe I'm all I need
Life is but a crazy bus ride
I'm fighting for the steering wheel
And I'm kicking my way to the driver's seat
Gotta be strong
I gotta see
Gotta believe
I'm all I need

I'm ready to face the music
And I'm writting my own song
I gotta let go
I'm not reading the notes
I'm playing but i

And I feel there's a ray of hope
In my two-way kaleidoscope
Oh yeah and I know I will find our home
Somewhere in the great unknown
And you know
And you know

Life is but a wheel of fortune
But nothing ever comes for free
Now I'm taking my name from the lattery
Gotta believe
I'm all I need
Life is but a crazy bus ride
I'm fighting for a steering wheel
And I'm kicking my way to the driver seat
Gotta be strong
I gotta see
I gotta believe
I'm all I need
I'm all I need
I'm all i need

And I know I will find our home

You know, And you know

Life is but a wheel of fortune
But nothing ever comes for free
I'm taking my name from the lattery
Gotta believe
I'm all I need
Live is but a crazy bus ride
I'm fighting for a steering wheel
Gotta be strong
I gotta see
I gotta believe
I'm all I need
I'm all I need
