

Dress Me Like A Clown

Margot & the Nuclear So and So's

I am alive
and that is the best that I can do you told me you lied

you swore you were mine I took you back a thousand times

talk of the town
you've been around
if he is the man you want then go

but tonight we'll leave all our lovers behind
and try to live a quiet life
my love has dressed me like a clown

you are an ass
a snake in the grass
vanity seeps from out your pores

and baby it's time to pay for my crime nothing I say can make you mine

you either sing it in key or run into me
I can fake it as good as you

all our stupid songs
we'll drive and reach the hills by dawn

tonight we'll leave
margot, you dress me like a clown tonight we'll drink

into an early grave
we'll laugh, but we will never be saved someone has dressed us all like clowns darling it's sin

where do i begin?
putting the contact lenses in

you say the lights
scurry like mice
reflecting the streets in your blue eyes out on the roof

waiting for love
turn me around and lock me up

baby you are an ass

vanity oozes out your pores

Oooh, ooooh
Oooh, ooooh
