Talking In Code

Margot & the Nuclear So and So's

I gotta go, and you're talking in code Saying I know where you've been and I know where you go

But I've been tired from the minute I woke I stopped listening the moment you spoke and said I'm long gone yeah, I'm long gone

And I'm sleeping alone in a house I don't own cause if you're touring your mind you'll get lost every time you'll sing me sad songs to keep me awake in that bedroom where we hid away Baby, I'm long gone.
Yeah, I'm long gone.

And your voice cracks like a piano you keep moving,
but where are you going?
Baby, we're long gone
Yeah, we're long gone
