

Riding Out The Storm

Maria Arredondo

Looking back it's very clear
Finally I know exactly what went wrong
Since you've been gone
I wanna find another place
Where missing you's not hurting me at all
Ooh I believe I have a chance
There's a better life waiting for me

I can see a ray of sunshine
Now the wind and rain has gone
I'm gonna leave the pain behind me
Cause I'm riding out the storm
Now I can see a new horison
That's not broken down and torn
Cause your love has made me stronger
And I'm riding out the storm

Knowing you've forgiven me
I'm just fighting for the love I almost lost
Whatever the cost
Gotta make a brand new start
Gonna find my way back to your heart

Ooh I believe that I can change
Cause you're the only one who's there for me

I can see a ray of sunshine
Now the wind and rain has gone
I'm gonna leave the pain behind me
Cause I'm riding out the storm
Now I can see a new horison
That's not broken down and torn
Cause your love has made me stronger
And I'm riding out the storm

Like a ship without a rudder
Simply drifting along the tide
But with you I know it's gonna be all right
I can feel a new beginning here inside

I can see a ray of sunshine
Now the wind and rain has gone
I'm gonna leave the pain behind me
Cause I'm riding out the storm
Now I can see a new horison
That's not broken down and torn
Cause your love has made me stronger
And I'm riding out the storm
