

I Forgive You

Maria McKee

Oh my love, I have tried many times to convince myself
You'll never change, maybe I could be happy with someone else
But here you are at my door, baby, let's end this crazy war
I forgive you, I forgive you, baby, I forgive you

Oh, oh, oh, it's alright
I'll take you back again
I'll take the blame
You mean that much to me, baby
I forgive you

Who would believe I would stand in the gap of this love affair?
I've got my pride but something broke inside when I saw you standin' there
You are the blood in my veins, why do we 'cause each other pain?
I forgive you, I forgive you, baby, I forgive you

Oh, oh, oh, it's alright
I'll take you back again
I'll take the blame
I wouldn't lie to you
I forgive you

Don't stand for abuse
I gave him everything, what do I have to lose?
I know he hurts me, I hurt him, sometimes I don't deserve him
But he loves me and I love him and this is how we are

It's alright
I'll take you back again
Baby, baby, baby
I forgive you, baby
I forgive you, baby
I forgive you

Oh, oh, oh, it's alright
I'll take you back again
I'll take the blame
You mean that much to me, baby
I forgive you

I can't stop this habit anyway
I can't stop this habit anyway
I can't stop this habit anyway...
