

Like It Does

Maria Taylor

You go back and forth, it's no direction
You walk hand in hand, it's not love
You can't blame the mind for dreamin' like it does

Do you feed the void or your addiction?
If you have faith you'll rise above
You can't blame the mind for believin' like it does
Ooh, like it does

There's no vow to make you honest
There's no confession that will make you pure
Can't blame the mind for searchin' for the cure

Don't pat your back for good intentions
It's an excuse for your careless hands
You can't blame the mind for forgetting best you can Ooh, best you can

Ooh...

You go back and forth, it's no direction
You walk hand in hand, it's not love
You can't blame the mind for the dreamin' that it does
Ooh, like it does
