

Saturday in June

Maria Taylor

Let's go back where the foothills overlook the emerald sea
Where the city lights will sparkle as far as your eyes see
Let's go back
Let's go back to the sun

Let's go back where your wildest thoughts are sitting at arms r each
Where every day is a new beginning
Let's go back
Let's go back to the sun

We've got just one life
So let's leave tonight

Let's go back where the open sign is turned off til noon
Where any day is a Saturday in June
So let's go back
Let's go back to the sun

The new year's begun
So let's go back to the sun

We've got just one life
So let's leave tonight

Mark it off the list you make
To do before you die
I want to show you things to open up your eyes

Let's go back where temptation is the night's forewarning
Where you wake dusted off by the early morning breeze
And let's go back
Let's go back to the sun

The new year's begun
So let's go back to the sun
The new year's begun
So let's go back to the sun
