

Cry.

Mariah Carey

Cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
Maybe I didn't leave much
Between us, That day
And maybe I shouldn't have told you
I loved you, Played the game
And now I understand
Wish I could have you back
And kiss you so and feel your hands on me
Till we both break down
Till we both break down
Till we both break down
And cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry

And maybe I didn't give you Your space back then
And maybe I should have just held out a little bit longer
But I was seduced by you
And I didn't know enough truly to enchanted to disregard the words yo u said
To make me yours
Need to hold you til we both
Till we both break down
(Break down)
Till we both breakdown
(I should have known you were tired of me)
Till we both break down
Till we both break down and cry

Oh my love
Imprudently I left every cell in me
So naked
Somewhere at the core of you
Blasts us off
I just need you to win boy
Till we both breakdown
I'm just saying
Till we both break down
Might as well tell the truth about the battle
Till we both break down
Yes I, guess it's selfish of me to just expect I'm entitled to heaven
Till we both break down
But tonight, all I wanna do is hold you tight
Till we both break down
And cry, cry, cry, cry
Till we both break down
And cry
Till we both break down
And cry
