Come Stay With Me

Marianne Faithfull

I'll send away all my false pride And I'll forsake all of my life Yes, I'll be as true as true can be If you'll come and stay with me

Lovers of the past I'll leave behind There'll never be another on my mind I'll do all I can so you'll feel free If you'll come and stay with me

The promises I made most faithfully I'll keep still should you decide to leave I'll try and see that you have all you need If you'll come and stay with me

We'll live a life no one has ever known
But I know you're thinking that I'm hardly grown
But oh thank God, at last and finally
I can see you're gonna stay with me

But oh thank God, at last and finally I can see you're gonna stay with me
