Morning Sun

Marianne Faithfull

I see the morning sun Coming over the hill, Sorrow and pain for me Coming over the hill.

I'm very sad
Lost love for me
But I will love again.

I know a man Who breaks every heart that he can. I know him well For I have been hurt by this man.

I'm very sad,
Tears follow me,
But I will love again.

I'm very sad,
Tears follow me,
But I will love again.

I know a man
Who promises that he'll be true
And I look back once again,
Well, what else could I do ?

I'm very sad
But he is true
And we will love again.

I see the morning sun Coming over the hill. I see him and he says That he'll stay And he will.

I'm sad no more,
He comforts me
And we will love again.
