

Many Times

Marie Fredriksson

Another day is gone
We waited far too long
I wonder how you feel
Our life is not for real

Oh, a never ending rain
My days are filled with pain
No matter what I do
Oh, there is no life with you

I tell you

Many times, many times I cry
Many times, many times I lied to you honey
Many times, many times I cry
Many times, I said many times

I tried to deal with time
But luck was never mine
The change that never came
And life remained the same

Oh, I tell you baby

Many times, many times I cry
Many times, many times I lied to you honey
Many times, many times I cry
Many times, I said many times, many times I cry

I tell you baby

Many times, many times I cry
Many times, many times I lied to you honey
Many times, many times I cry
Many times, I said many times, many times I lie to you honey

Many times I cry
