

I had a dream
This one I feel the need to mention
I was happy for a while and I stopped being scared
And ashamed to say what's on my mind
But you thought I'd change after a while
And said you better treat me different or else...
Or else seems like a stupid fucking thing to say to someone like me
Someone like me
WOW
WOW
WOW
Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo WOW
Don't be surprised I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me Inside
Don't be surprised I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me Inside
I'm worse than what you think you'd catch from me
Complicateds understated did you stop and take a look at who you fell in love with?
At who you fell in love with?
Does it matter how many times I say it?
It never gets old thats why I have to say
WOW
WOW
WOW
Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo
Don't be surprised I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me Inside
Don't be surprised I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me Inside
It doesn't matter if you're going to come or just going
I never wanted you to come here anyway
There's a word thats like you because it can be a noun a verb a exclamation or the thing I say
When something is unbelievable when I'm not able to believe how unbelievable
That you believe you could not be-lievable
That's when I have to say
WOW
WOW
WOW
Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo Wo
WOW
Don't be surprised I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me Inside
Don't be surprised I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me Inside
