

Guardian Angels

Mario Lanza

Guardian angels around my bed
Joining me in my prayers
They hush the shadows when they dance about
They shoo away the tears

Guardian angels to comfort me
If I wake in the night
They gather all my dreams
Their halos are my light

They dry my tears
If I should weep
They tuck me in
They rouse me from my sleep

Guardian angels around my bed
Standing by till I rise
There's one with shining wings that holds my hand
And shows me paradise
