

3 Days Ago

Mario Winans

Time, is taking a toll on my life
These days keep on passing me by
I want to see you but there's no time
So i sit here and stare at the sky
And i'm hopin that you realize i Want to feel you
But theres no time.

Yesterday you said that we could get away
The day before i was alone like any other day
3 days ago i wrote this song just for you
Will i ever get through to you

Time, just wont see me eye to eye
I'm still waiting for you to reply
I need to hear you but theres no time
So I'll skip this line
I cant deny i miss you
Can we spend more time

I've waited so long
To wait for you
And spend all my ?
Will i ever get through?
What can i do
To get this through
My love is for you
Your love is for me

I just cant waste any more time
So tell me whats with you and i
I waited for you so give me time

Baby..Baby...oh will i ever get
Through to you baby....
