

Should've Known

Mario Winans

If I had to do it all over
I would've never kissed you
But at that time I just couldn't Resists still can't believe you went
And told her how well I got to know ya
Its crazy baby I
Wasn't ready for this,

Breakin' up is so hard to do babe,
Sometimes your feelings
Could get hurt and it seems like it
Won't work and I'm sorry I did not respect you babe
Why was I under her shirt liftin' her skirt
What did I do baby
Shoulda known shoulda known
That a man gets weak
And I shoulda known shoulda
Known it could happen to me
And I'm down on my knees begging please

For what its worth ill say I'm sorry
But I know you won't forgive me
So I had to put myself
Right in your shoes
No matter how much you love me
Girl I did you so dirty
And I see some you
Win and some you lose

Breakin' up is so hard to do babe,
Sometimes your feelings
Could get hard and it seems like it
Won't work and I'm sorry
I did not respect you babe
Why was I under her shirt liftin' her skirt
What did I do baby I shoulda known shoulda known
That a man gets weak (o baby) and shoulda know
Shoulda know it could happen to me sweet lady
Tell me what must I do baby, what I gotta do I
Made a fool outta myself
And I feel so stupid baby
And I really hate it I guess I should Learned not to have taken time
With someone else
Cause I'll end up losin' my baby

I shoulda known shoulda known
That a man gets weak
And I shoulda known shoulda known it could Happen to me

And this is what I should've done
I shoulda known better
I touched that stormy weather and it
Hit me right back in my face oh baby
I shoulda known better
I touched that stormy weather and it

Hit me back in the face I'm all dismay
