

Don't Walk Away

Mario

Her voice, I can still hear it all in my head
I can still hear the way that she said
When she said she's leaving
Her tears, I can still feel em all in my hands
I can still see em from where I stand
In her pain, im drowning
But i, only have myself to blame
Dont tell me that its too late
I think about you night and day

Yes I hurt you, I know
Yeah I made my mistakes
Next time I wont let pride in the way
I will stand by your side and I'll stand till its right
There's no way it should end this way
Just dont walk away

You're on the other side of town
I wonder what you're thinking now
I never meant to break you down
I'm sorry now
One more day
Without you by my side
I swear its gonna make me die
I need you to turn around, oh baby

Yes I hurt you, I know
Yeah I made my mistakes
Next time I wont let pride in the way
I will stand by your side and I'll stand till its right
There's no way it should end this way
Just don't walk away
Just don't walk away
Just don't walk away
Ooh don't walk away girl

Every morning when I arise
It's a nightmare cause baby you're not there
No loving when I get home I'm tired of praying alone
Baby please
Come back I know

Yeah I hurt you, I know
Yes I made my mistakes
Next time I wont let pride in the way
I will stand by your side and I'll stand till its right
There's no way it should end this way
Just dont walk away

Yes I hurt you, I know
Yeah I made my mistakes
Next time I wont let pride in the way
I will stand by your side and I'll stand till its right
There's no way it should end this way
Just don't walk away
