

Found Someone

Marion Raven

Restart my heart
It is falling apart
The memories are gone
Yeah, it's really been that long
But to count those days on my hand
It'd be like counting grains of sand

But I found someone to follow
Follow my sorrow
His love he will lend
A dime an hour for pretend
Found someone to follow
His heart he lets me borrow
I wake up and you're gone
But I found someone

Heaven and the sky
Here and now I defy you to come to me
Don't care if you don't agree
To walk the steps to get where you are
I'd be like counting every star

Will it come to this
When I stop to miss
And want him to stay
God, I long for that day
