

Let Me Introduce Yourself

Marion Raven

You got everything that I want
You got him in the palm of your hand
But I know you've slept with everyone in his band
Again again again

You try to pretend we get along
But pretty little girl, you got it all wrong
I've got my eyes on you and I know what's going on
And on the fight's begun

I'm not blind you see
And you're not fooling me
You've stepped into my territory
Let me introduce myself
(Your enemy)

He would be shocked if he knew what I found out
The canzonet that you play would get a different sound
You lied about your BC to keep him around
Around around around we go

(Your reality)

Oh no what have you
Gotten yourself into?
But to be honest
I don't give a Ah! about you
You
You

I'm not blind you see
And you're not fooling me
No I won't let you be
Cuz you're not folling me
You've stepped into my territory
Let me introduce myself
Your morality
