

Thank You For Loving Me

Marion Raven

You look beautiful tonight,
as you turn down the light,
you could be anywhere with anyone,
but you're here with me tonight...

Red candle light...
Is glowing in your eyes...
The lust is burning too,
as you hold me close to you,
and you promise me tonight...

I'm gonna spend my whole life trying,
to keep love from dying on me...
I'm gonna spend my whole life faking,
to keep us from breaking,
I'll make you see...
So take my hand...
Thank you for loving me...

Take a look at myself...
I'm not a baby anymore...
You know I miss you when you're gone,
for your body I will long,
can't believe I'm finally home...

I never wanna' see you sad,
I never wanna' bring you down,
I never wanna' make you lie...

I'm gonna spend my whole life trying,
to keep love from dying on me...
I'm gonna spend my whole life faking,
to keep us from breaking,
I'll make you see...
So take my hand...
Thank you for loving me...
