Alabaster Queen

Marissa Nadler

When you came to town I fell for you it seems To a house with twisted branches And a candle dream I'll be your alabaster queen Your alabaster queen

When I hear you play I think of water and sunshine

And I never really mind All your women wistful wanting You all the time I'll be your alabaster queen Your alabaster queen

Your alabaster queen And sunshine king