

Janie in Love

Marissa Nadler

I used to be like you
The first to walk away
I never thought that I'd see the day
That I'd start anew
I was insane, but not like you

You're a natural disaster and I am
Watching you blow up everything
You touch and the earth will crumble
You speak and hurricanes attack
I am pulling out the windows to prepare for you
When I hear your name
Some great deluge
Janie in love [x6]

I have a dancer in the vault
Seeing you fall, I miss it all
I dreamt of you
Some portrait of the way
I'd command the colors
Stop counting the days

You're a natural disaster and I am
Watching you blow up everything
You touch and the earth will crumble
You speak and hurricanes attack
I am pulling out the windows to prepare for you
When I hear your name
Some great deluge
Janie in love [x6]

Another time, another place
We would have been
