

Undertaker

Marissa Nadler

And I was your undertaker
I was your highway girl
I was your bitter taste
Of every other world

You wake in the maddening morning
You wake in the firelight world
You wait for your [unverified] dancer
From every other world

And I was your undertaker
And I was your ivory girl
And I was your bitter taste
Of every other world

And I wait for the trains
To ride me back
To some highway world
And I wait for the trains
To ride me back
To some other world
