

Place Your Bets

Marit Bergman

Place you bets the race i starting Place you bets and make your call How many days, before the breakdown how many nights before the fall

I wish i didn't have to warn you I wish i didn't have to let you know

You don't wanna know me
when i'm lonely
You don't wanna know me
when i'm small
You don't wanna know me
when i'm lonely
And I don't wanna know me now at all

So place youre bets the race is starting There'll be a lot of blood, stay of the tracks Oh i'm not gonna be the last girl standing watch the game and watch me cracking up

I never wanted you to notice
I always try to hide it but it shows

You don't wanna know me
when i'm lonely
You don't wanna know me
when i'm small
You don't wanna know me
when i'm lonely
And I don't wanna know me now at all
(And I don't wanna know me now at all)
