Solid Ground

Marit Larsen

Cannot fall, never do regret Know just what is being said Know the risk you take Keep your head above it all Sure you can fall But not now you gotta prove Something new, being you, being you

Can't feel, keep from asking why Be the strongest at goodbyes Know your place in life Now expand your wings and fly It reaches high but not, Enough you seem to me So incomplete, swept off your feet

And let me tell you they will always pull you down Before you know it they will take your smile and push you around They will fight and struggle To blur and trouble Your sense of solid ground

Cannot know, lose your self-control Be and angel over all Know your secret way Laugh at everything they say Will you remain the same? And now you dare not see What's letting go Inside of me,is it me?

And they will always pull you down Before you know it they will take your smile and push you around They will fight and struggle To blur and trouble Your sense of solid ground

Keep your head above it all, sure you can fall But not now you gotta prove

And they will always pull you down Before you know it they will take your smile and push you around They will haunt your every dream They will make you come undone at the seams And they will fight and struggle To blur and trouble Your sense of solid ground?

Keep your head above it all Sure you can fall But not now you gotta prove Something new, being you, being you
