

Traveling Alone

Marit Larsen

You're gonna get hungry, you're gonna get tired
You're gonna lose hope, be wishing on stars
You gotta stay with it
You gotta stay with it

You're gonna get lost, you're gonna get scared
You're gonna wanna give up, your hands in the air
You gotta stay with it
Oh you gotta stay with it

You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
Like a rolling stone, you're traveling alone

You're gonna get lonely, you're gonna get sad
It's gonna get messy, it's gonna look bad
You gotta be in it
Oh you gotta be in it

You gotta be patient, admit when you're wrong
You gotta keep singing, singing your songs
You gotta be in it
Oh you gotta be in it

You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
Like a rolling stone, you're traveling alone

You're gonna keep learning, you're gonna move on You're gonna keep trying, you're gonna stay strong
You're gonna get by with a little help from your friends
But always remember, and never forget that

You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
Like a rolling stone

You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
You, you are traveling alone
Like a rolling stone, you're traveling alone
