

El Macho

Mark Knopfler

Your date has gone home
Now you're left on your own sweet own
Your tough-talkin' friend
Split on you in the bitter end

And you look like a fine thing Jerry
Yeh you look like a fine thing Jerry

They say you're a star
That's what the boys all say you are
I don't see much TV
So you don't mean shit to me

But you look like a fine thing Jerry
Yeh you look like a fine thing Jerry

But they've got a name for people like you
Yeh they do
And they've got a name for people like me too

El macho, el macho
El macho, el macho

Now they want you to sing
Don't get shy or anything
The boys are all here
Gonna buy you another beer

Cos you look like a fine thing, Jerry
Yeah you look like a fine thing, Jerry

El macho, el macho
El macho, el macho
