I know you're tryin to be a big girl And keep the tears from your eyes And it's going to be a little hard To lift your head up high

And you're gonna need a man A man who'll understand Whoa darlin darlin darlin Please consider me

Well I know that all your friends
Have left you all alone
And all the good times you had with them are gone
So you need yourself a man

Yeah and I'll understand Well darlin darlin darlin Please consider me

Baby, oh I've felt this way before
Many many many many many times before
So you've got to have a man
Yeah and you know I'll understand
Whoa darlin darlin darlin
Just consider me

I don't want to be left on the outside please consider me babe
I don't want to be left all alone please consider me yeah
I don't want to be left on the outside baby please consider me yeah
